

First Floor:

- Convening Room- space for Board meetings, teacher trainings, student presentations, student clubs, community gatherings and more
- Student Pop-Up Shop-space for student-designed businesses, will be scheduled on a rotating basis both for students to run businesses and to meet with clients, investors, and customers
- MakerStudio-tools and equipment for clubs such as 3D printer club, STEM Bike Club, FIRST LEGO League robotics and prototyping/ marketing tools for student entrepreneurs

Second Floor:

- Professional Studies Center- up to ½ day Highlands High School Flight Path programs with in-depth career study, advanced coursework, industry partners and real-world integrated projects.
- Flight Paths for 19-20 school year: App Development, Entrepreneurship, Health Innovation
- Flexible space for other high school classes, programs and clubs

For more information or to volunteer your business to partner with our students, please contact:

District:

Karen Cheser, superintendent: karen.cheser@fortthomas.kyschools.us

Bill Bradford, assistant superintendent for teaching and learning:

bill.bradford@fortthomas.kyschools.us

Highlands High School:

Matt Bertasso, principal: matt.bertasso@fortthomas.kyschools.us

Trinity Walsh, college and career counselor: trinity.walsh@fortthomas.kyschools.us